

National Draft Ben Carson for President Committee

John Philip Sousa IV
National Chairman
Vernon Robinson
Campaign Director

Dear Friend,

If you are committed to winning the White House in 2016, and you won't settle for anything less than a Tea Party conservative, then I urge you to sign the enclosed Run, Ben, Run! petition to Dr. Benjamin Carson today.

By doing so, you are not committing yourself to support Ben Carson for President, but you will be urging Dr. Carson to throw his hat into the ring and...

...you will be helping to ensure that no matter who the GOP nominee for President is, he or she will win.

I know it's early, so I can understand if you are undecided, but you should not be undecided about making sure a conservative is elected President in 2016.

That's why I'm hoping you will sign and return the enclosed petition to Dr. Ben Carson today.

If you are still unsure, please read on...

There are some very strong reasons why having Dr. Carson on the ticket is the only way to ensure success in 2016. One reason is that he will win at least...

40% of the Black Vote!

Here's why...In 2012, internal polls showed that Presidential candidate Herman Cain was backed by 40% of black Americans. And, Cain was running against Barack Obama, another black man.

If Herman Cain could poll 40% of the black vote, running against a black candidate, just imagine what percent of the black vote Dr. Ben Carson would receive running against Hillary Clinton or any other far left white Democrat!

Mr. Cain was well liked, but Dr. Carson is a national hero in the black community. He is almost universally loved and respected. In fact, he is revered by most black Americans.

I personally believe Ben Carson would win more than 50% of the African American vote.

But, suppose Ben Carson receives just 20% of the black Vote. If he receives just 20% of the black vote it is mathematically impossible for Hillary Clinton, or any other Democrat to win!

That's Right, Just 20% of the Black Vote!

And, it was not that long ago that Republicans won much more than 20% of the black vote.

Did you know that as recently as 1956, Dwight D. Eisenhower received 39% of the black vote?

That's why the candidacy of Dr. Ben Carson terrifies the radicals who control the Democratic Party. They know they cannot win if Ben Carson is the Republican nominee.

As you probably know, President Obama is not a descendent of slaves, like Dr. Carson.

In fact, Barack Obama has very little in common with the average black American. He was never part of the civil rights movement, he was educated in exclusive private schools, and he grew up in an economically comfortable family in Hawaii, not in one of the poorest areas of Detroit, like Dr. Carson.

Of course, in 2016, the Republican nominee will not be running against Barack Obama, he will likely be running against Hillary Clinton.

And, in a head-to-head contest with Hillary Clinton, there's just no way that Ben Carson would receive less than 40% of the black vote.

But, the Republican establishment is uncomfortable with Dr. Carson because he is a conservative, Tea Party Republican.

Believe it or not, they want another establishment Republican as their presidential nominee. In fact, they are already promoting moderates such as Chris Christie and Jeb Bush.

Talk about insanity. I say...

No More Entitled, Establishment Republicans!

But, if you and I don't back a sure winner like Ben Carson, they will divide and conquer, and the result will be another loser like McCain or Romney. Please don't get me wrong, I have no personal animosity for Senator McCain or Mitt Romney. They are both decent, well-intentioned men, but if we continue to nominate men like them, why should we expect to win on election day?

The Definition of Insanity is...

...Nominating another establishment Republican and expecting a different outcome. The Republican establishment nominated John McCain and expected to win. But, they lost. They nominated Mitt Romney and he received even fewer votes than McCain. And, of course, they lost again.

Picking the same kind of candidates for President and expecting a different outcome simply does not work!

Duh!

Hillary Clinton is already out raising millions of dollars for her 2016 bid for President, and right now, there is no one in her way. She has an open path to the Democratic nomination for President.

And, if the GOP nominates another McCain or Romney, Hillary will win.

If you and I sit back and do nothing, and we leave the field to the “entitled” Republican establishment candidates, they will once again grab the GOP nomination and, as sure as the sun comes up in the East, they will be defeated.

Surely you don’t want that to happen.

But, Just Winning Isn’t Enough!

We must elect a man who will not settle for politics as usual.

We must elect a man who is 100% committed to the United States Constitution, and to the principles of freedom set forth by the Founders.

We must elect a man who will insist on a balanced budget, and who is not a captive of political correctness.

We must elect a man who supported the Tea Party movement from the very beginning. And, we must elect a man who has the courage to stand up to the President of the United States and tell him to his face that Obamacare is a disaster that must be repealed.

Dr. Benjamin Carson is That Man!

At the 2013 National Prayer Breakfast, with the President and Vice President Biden just a few feet away, Ben Carson said that Obamacare was a disaster, and then offered a free market alternative. He also suggested that the IRS be shut down...

When I pick up my Bible, you know what I see? I see the fairest individual in the Universe, God, and he's given us a system. It's called tithe. Now we don't necessarily have to [make] it 10%, but it's [the] principle. He didn't say, if your crops fail, don't give me any tithes. He didn't say, if you have a bumper crop, give me triple tithes. So there must be something inherently fair about proportionality.

Dr. Carson, an outspoken Christian, not only verbally supports the right-to-life movement, he has been an active part of it, counseling women to choose life, rather than abortion, and speaking at fund raising dinners for crisis pregnancy centers across the nation.

His fearless courage is evident in this recounting of an exchange with the head of the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU)...

I asked him if he would speak for and defend the rights of a 28 week old baby [born prematurely] who was...on life support. He replied that that was a no-brainer; of course the ACLU would defend such an individual...I then asked why it was difficult to defend a baby that was five weeks further along in development and was in the most protected environment possible, but easy to defend a less viable individual who was outside the womb.

Ben Carson was an early supporter of the Tea Party Movement. He wrote an entire chapter about it in his book, America the Beautiful. He praised it, writing that the Tea Party is...

...a significant force for real change. [It] recognized that both the Democrats and the Republicans were responsible for excessive spending, incessant pork barrel projects to benefit special constituent groups...

Ben Carson wants the government to be responsive to the wishes of its citizens, by repealing Obamacare, and making sure our borders are secure.

The overwhelming majority of Americans want the southern borders of our country secured and our immigration laws enforced, but several administrations recently have been unwilling to get tough on this issue because they do not want to alienate a large voting block of Latinos. This is yet another area where our government's leadership and the wishes of many of the people diverge and the people are being ignored.

While Hillary Clinton and Barack Obama believe in the Marxist concept of redistribution, Ben Carson does not. This is what he said about government redistribution of income in America the Beautiful...

...in 1795 the Supreme Court of the United States declared, "...The legislature... has no authority to make an act divesting one citizen of his freehold [property], and vesting it in another...It is inconsistent with the principles of reason, justice and moral rectitude...it is contrary to the principles of...every free government; and lastly, it is contrary to the letter and spirit of the Constitution."

Only Ben Carson can finally end the mess that is the welfare state. He will replace it with a path to self-reliance and success for those entrapped in that Democratic Party created nightmare. He has written...

A truly moral nation enacts policies that encourage personal responsibility and discourage self-destructive behavior by not subsidizing people who live irresponsibly and make poor choices.

Dr. Carson proposes “phasing out government assistance” and replacing it with assistance from compassionate citizens who work through nonprofit organizations and churches to not only provide support, but also help to change lives.

He bluntly says of the current system created by the left to keep the poor in an underclass status, it...

...may seem a bit harsh to many bleeding heart do-gooders, but I submit that what is harsh is continuing to encourage irresponsible behavior and generating a permanent underclass.

Of the growing national debt, he writes...

To saddle the next generation with unimaginable debt is not only callous, it is morally reprehensible.

And, as a Tea Party conservative, he doesn't just blame the Democrats for America's fiscal mess. Listen to this excerpt from American the Beautiful...

Both Democrats and Republicans have strayed so far from the path of responsible financial policy that the concept of balancing the budget is foreign to them.

Ben Carson Not Only Identifies Problems, But, Also Provides Commonsense Solutions

To keep the United States from going bankrupt, he advises...

...have each governmental agency and department trim its budget by 10% —with no exceptions. In each subsequent year, another 10% decrease would be required and would continue as long as necessary to bring the budget back into balance.

Is there Any Other Candidate for President...

...who would have the courage to confront the head of the ACLU on abortion, or tell the President of the United States to his face that Obamacare is a failure, and that high taxes are both counterproductive and unfair?

There is one more important reason you and I need to encourage Ben Carson to run for President and it may be...

The Most Important Reason to Support Ben Carson

The worst and most destructive aspect of the Obama Presidency has been his efforts to divide Americans...to set one group of people against another—black vs. white, young vs. old, women vs. men, blue collar workers vs. white collar workers, businessmen vs. workers. Dr. Carson believes that encouraging class warfare and creating envy is immoral, and destructive to America. I agree!

E pluribus Unum

E pluribus Unum is the Latin phrase that appears on the Great Seal of the United States. It means, out of many, one.

In other words, it means that although we are all descendants of those who came from many other countries to the United States, we are united as one people.

But, the counter message of the Democratic Party is diversity, not unity.

Sadly, President Obama has been a divider, not a uniter.

Only once before, during the Civil War, were Americans as divided as they are today.

Because of his unparalleled record as a medical doctor, his courage, his compassion, and the high regard he is held in the African American community...

Ben Carson is the Only Man Who Can Heal America

Dr. Carson is the one person who can end the rancor, the distrust, the divide that has been crassly exploited by the cynical and unprincipled leftists who control the Democratic Party.

Ben Carson has been a kind, compassionate, and skilled healer his entire life. And, Ben Carson is a proud and unrepentant American!

He will be a President who never apologizes for America. Whereas, Barack Obama does not see America as a great, good, and exceptional nation, Ben Carson sees it exactly that way. He sums up his view of our nation this way...

...there is no country I'd rather be a citizen of and call home than America. Where else but in this land of opportunity are people given so much freedom to pursue their dreams, with the potential to bring out the best in everyone?

Ben Carson is a man whose life story defies the liberals' notion of what a black American can accomplish. He would make a great president.

While Dr. Ben Carson is not perfect (and, of course, no one is), he is...

The Nearly Perfect Candidate for President

No Democrat candidate for President, even Hillary Clinton, can defeat him. No

Republican candidate for President is as articulate, courageous, and as full of common sense as Ben Carson. And, most important of all...

No other candidate for President can heal our broken land.

But, Will Ben Carson Run for President?

The answer is YES!

He has made it clear he will run if asked, if drafted...

This is what he said to a New York Times reporter when asked if he was considering a run for President...

“Certainly if a year and a half went by and there was no one on the scene and people are still clamouring, I would have to take that into consideration. I would never turn my back on my fellow citizens.”

Dr. Carson is just waiting to hear from you and me!

He is so in tune with the Founders idea of citizen statesmen serving their country that he believes he must be called to serve by American citizens before being entitled to run.

Are You Ready to Clamor?!

If you want to win in 2016 and you want to elect a genuine conservative as President, then please join me in clamoring for Ben Carson.

Please sign and return the enclosed Run, Ben, Run petition today.

Let Dr. Carson know that you want him to run for President in 2016.

If you want to elect a man in 2016 who can heal America, then won't you please sign the enclosed petition and lend your support to the Ben Carson candidacy today?

Dr. Carson is Waiting to Hear From You!

Ben Carson has made it crystal clear that he is not going to run unless he is drafted by the American people. But, he will run if we send him hundreds of thousands of petitions urging him to run for President. So won't you...

Please Sign and Return Your Petition Today

And, when you do so, won't you please give this effort your most generous financial support? This is a national campaign. That means we need to organize nationwide, especially in the early primary states of Iowa, New Hampshire, and South Carolina. Remember, it's not enough to just tell Ben Carson he should run for President. We need to put an organization together that can deliver the votes needed to win the Republican Presidential nomination.

Your gift of $35 or more today will help pay for a field organization that will work to put Ben Carson on the ticket in every primary state.

Early Dollars are Critical to Success

Your early support of $35 or $50 or $100 or even $1,000 is worth multiples of that amount next year.

Remember, Chris Christie and Jeb Bush are already running hard and they have deep financial pockets. They are nice people, but they are not conservatives like you and me.

And, of course, Hillary Clinton is trying her best to match Barack Obama's billion dollar campaign.

But, you and I, as dedicated, patriotic Americans can nominate and elect a man the Founders would be proud of, a man dedicated to the US Constitution and to fiscal responsibility. You and I must put our efforts and our dollars behind Ben Carson.

Won't you please strike a blow for victory in 2016 and for freedom by donating to the National Draft Ben Carson for President Committee today?

If you can send $1,000 or more, I hope you will do it today.

But, if you can only send $35, please do it immediately.

Every Single Dollar Counts

This is a citizens campaign to restore pride, justice, economic commonsense, and unity to America.

Please send whatever you can today!

Sincerely,

John Philip Sousa, IV

P.S. Don't just sit back and let the Republican Establishment pick the next GOP nominee! You can change the future. My great-grandfather was proud to be an American and I can guarantee you that he would be among the first to put his name on the petition that clamors for Ben Carson to run for President. That's why I hope and pray that you will join this crusade to save America by signing and returning the enclosed Run, Ben, Run petition, and by donating at least $35 to this crucial draft effort. God bless you and God bless America!

VERNON ROBINSON

Dear Friend,

As a former office holder, the son of a Tuskegee Airman, and a graduate of the United States Air Force Academy, I think I may know why you are undecided about encouraging Dr. Carson to run for President.

Can he win? Is he a real conservative? Why does he want to be drafted?

Maybe those are some of the questions that have crossed your mind. They crossed my mind too when I was asked to run the National Draft Ben Carson for President campaign.

Yes, I am convinced that Ben Carson can win. In fact, I am convinced that no 2016 Republican ticket can win without Ben Carson on it. Only Ben Carson can get enough black votes to keep the Democrats from winning the White House.

And, as far as being conservative is concerned, Ben Carson is the real deal. His conservative principles are bone deep, and he has more courage than just about any other candidate I know of.

Ben Carson believes in the America of our Founders. They believed that men who served in public office should see it as public service. That's the way Ben sees and it's why he wants to be drafted.

Ben Carson doesn't need to be President. But, he has made it clear he is willing to serve.

So, even if you are inclined to support another candidate, please urge Ben Carson to run and please give him your financial support to ensure that you and I will win in 2016.

Sincerely,
